Sticky Bun Mystery Continues

This Sunday, the dough to be used for the famed Camp Nazareth sticky buns was stolen. A video stating a ransom for the dough was discovered at the scene of the crime. If the thief isn’t caught and the dough isn’t recovered soon, there will be no Wednesday Morning Delight this year.

Now the search for the culprit is on. The younger and older cabins are working together to find clues to a series of riddles that were left by the perpetrator. With only one day left until the classic Camp Naz Wednesday morning tradition is expected to occur, all we can do is hope that the mystery will be solved and justice will be served.

We ask anyone that has information on this terrible trick to please tell Fr. Stephen Loposky or Program Director George Ellis. All assistance is greatly appreciated.

“And I by my works will show you my faith.”
~ James 2:18
“God loves us more than a father, mother, friend, or any else could love, and even more than we are able to love ourselves.”

~ St. John Chrysostom
