Welcome Campers!

After a very successful first week here at camp for our Diocesan weeks, the second week has just arrived. So many more campers have just arrived today from New Jersey, New York, and Atlanta yesterday to spend the week here at Camp Naz. They have all been waiting to arrive here for so long, and now that day has come. It’s now their chance to spend a week in paradise on Earth.

The evening started off with another episode of Camp Nazareth Live to introduce the staff and go over the rules. However, the evening saw an unexpected turn as the Sticky Buns have been stolen yet again. The campers must work together to find out who stole the treasured breakfast this time. Afterward, we got to come together and sing beautifully as our visiting clergy went around and blessed each cabin. What a great way to start off the new week.

“And I by my works will show you my faith.”

THEOLOGY REVIEW

“Don’t be deceived regarding the knowledge of what will be after your death: what you sow here, you will reap there. After leaving here, no one can make progress. Here is the work, there the reward; here the struggle, there the crowns.”

~ St. Barsanuphius the Great
