Welcome Campers!!!

Yesterday marked the beginning of our third and final camping session for the children of our diocese. While the weather was rainy and the ground was muddy, we were still able to start this week with a lot of fun.

After our campers arrived, we all got together in the pavilion for staff introductions, presented via visual aids (and a lot of laughs). The staff was introduced, the rules were explained, and His Grace Bishop Gregory welcomed everyone to this home away from home. The evening soon concluded with the clergy coming around to bless all the cabins. Now begins another incredible week here at Camp Nazareth.

“...And I by my works will show you my faith.”
~ James 2:18

Campers have already started to enjoy the Camp Nazareth atmosphere.
THEOLOGY REVIEW
“So we also enter this temporal life for the sake of something greater: for eternal life. And as soldiers think with joy about returning home, so also Christians constantly remember the end of their lives and their return to their heavenly fatherland.”
~ St. Nicholas of Serbia
